Approved to Felias 100 01/15 : DARRIPE 4B00346R000100170029-6

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : 14 -RDP64B00346R000100170029-6

of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a large envelope addresse to "Pilet Francis Gary Powers, U-Z, care of Senate Armed Services Committee, Washington, USA." There were no identifiable markings on the stamp other than the one showing three pence value and the postmark was illegible. The letter obviously had been mailed from Britain or one of the members of the Commonwealth usuing the British monetary system. The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14.  JGO) Delivered to Mr. Harry Wingate, of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of a letter to  15.  JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Ringe in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counse to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's effice and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held up pending a censolidated grouping of such items.	Thursday - 29 March		Page 4
of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a large envelope addresse to "Pilet Francis Gary Powers, U-2, care of Senate Armed Services Committee, Washington, USA." There were no identifiable markings on the stamp other than the one showing three pence value and the postmark was illegible. The letter obviously had been mailed from Britain or one of the members of the Commonwealth usuing the British monetary system. The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14.  JGO) Delivered to Mr. Harry Wingate, of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of a letter to had been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15.  JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Ringe in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counce to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the information provided was more than sufficient.  16.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held to "Pilet Francis Gary Powers, U-2, care of Senate Armed Services Committee, Washington, USA." There were no identifiable markings on the stamp other than the one showing three pence value and the postmark was illegible. The letter obviously had been mailed from Britain or one of the members of the Commonwealth usuing the British monetary system. The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14.  16.  16.  16.  17.  18.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19	13.	- JGO) Received from	n Herbert Atkinson, Committee, Washington, USA." There were no identifiable markings on the stamp other than the one showing three pence value and the postmark was illegible. The letter obviously had been mailed from Britain or one of the members of the Commonwealth usuing the British monetary system. The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14.  16.  16.  16.  17.  16.  17.  18.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19	of the Senate Armed	Services Committee staff, a lar	ge envelope addressed the stamp other than the one showing three pence value and the postmark was illegible. The letter obviously had been mailed from Britain or one of the members of the Commonwealth usuing the British monetary system. The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14. JGO) Delivered to Mr. Harry Wingate, of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of a letter to had been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15. JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Ringe in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counse to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16. JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	to "Pilot Francis Ga:	ry Powers, U-2, care of Senate	Armed Services was illegible. The letter obviously had been mailed from Britain or one of the members of the Commonwealth usuing the British monetary system. The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16.  17.  16.  17.  18.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19
The letter will be transmitted to Mr. Powers.  14.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16
JGO) Delivered to Mr. Harry Vingate, of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of a letter to had been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15.  JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Ringe in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counce to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L. G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Arme Services Committee staff for 160 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held JGO) Delivered to Mr. Harry Wingste, of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of a letter to nad been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15.  JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Rings in the office or Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counce to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Cary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Arme Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held			tish monetary system. of the Senate Armed Services Committee staff, a copy of a letter to  had been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16.  16	The letter will be tra	namitted to Mr. Powers.
nad been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15.  16.  17.  18.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19	5. (
had been recommended by Senator Richard B. Russell.  15.  16.  16.  17.  18.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19.  19		JGO) Delivered to	Mr. Harry Wingate,
JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Rings in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counse to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the information provided was more than sufficient.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armonovided was more than sufficient.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armonovided was more than sufficient.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armonovided was more than sufficient.  JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armonovided was more than sufficient. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	of the Seaste Armed	services Committee stall, a co	py of a letter to
JGO) Discussed with Miss Jean C. Rings in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counse to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the information provided was more than sufficient.  16. JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armonovided was more than sufficient.  Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counse to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16	had been recommend	ed by Sanator Richard B. Russe	A.
in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd, a letter from Legislative Counce to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Cary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16	3.0	THE ARTS AND THE COLUMN TO THE
to Senator Byrd in response to a constituent inquiry concerning Francis Gary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the information provided was more than sufficient.  16. JGO) A request was made of the Senate Arme Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held		100) Discussed with	h Miss Jean C. Ringer Cary Powers. Miss Ringer indicated that the constituent in question, L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the information provided was more than sufficient.  16. JGO) A request was made of the Senate Armonomytics Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	in the entire of Senate	or Rosert C. Syrd, a letter from	n Legislative Counsel
L.G. Wilson, is well known to the Senator's office and that the informatic provided was more than sufficient.  16. JGO) A request was made of the Senate Arme Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	comments by the comments of th	sponse to a constituent inquiry	concerning Francis
JGO) A request was made of the Senate Arme Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	Oury rowers. Miss	minger indicated that the consti	tuent in question,
JGO) A request was made of the Senate Arme- Services Committee staff for 160 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held			ad that the information
Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	brasines were more fr	ter satiscient.
Services Committee staff for 100 copies of the printed record of the open hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	14	1001 4 2222
hearing on the confirmation of General Carter. Mr. Atkinson, of the Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held		JOU! A request was mad	G OI THE SENATE ATMEN
Committee staff, indicated they would be pleased to provide us with these copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	Control of the Contro	stati for 100 copies of the printe	d record of the open copies but there would be no firm date on which we could expect delivery. Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	Committee and today	mation of General Carter. Mr.	Alkinson, of the
Such hearings are handled as routine items and usually printing is held	Committee start, and	icated they would be pleased to	provide us with these were nearings are naudled as routine items and usually printing is held up pending a consolidated grouping of such items.	cohies out their medi	d be no firm date on which we c	ould expect delivery.
up pending a consolidated grouping of such items.	Such Bearings are ha	adied as routine items and usual	lly printing is hold up pending a consolid	ates grouping of such items.

JOHN S. WARNER Legislative Counsel STAT

cc: IG
DD/$
Colonel Grogan
Item #3 - EO/DCI, DDCI
Item #4 - DCI, DDCI, DD/L, AD/CI

Approved For Release 2004/01/15 : CIA-RDP64B00346R000100170029-6

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT